PROJECT HOSPITALITY, INC. HMIS PRIVACY POLICY

SCOPE OF POLICY

1. This document describes the privacy policy and practices of Project Hospitality, Inc. Our administrative office is located at 100 Park Avenue, Staten Island, New York, 10302.

2. This policy covers the collection, use, and maintenance of protected personal information for clients of Project Hospitality, Inc., as an organization affiliated with the NYC Coalition on the Continuum of Care (CCoC).

3. Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information is any personal information we maintain about a client that:
   a. Allows identification of an individual directly or indirectly;
   b. Can be manipulated by a reasonably foreseeable method to identify a specific individual; or
   c. Can be linked with other available information to identify a specific client.

4. Project Hospitality, Inc. adopted this policy because the Department of Housing and Urban Development issued standards for Homeless Management Information Systems (HMIS). We intend our policy and practices to be consistent with those standards. (Reference 69 Federal Register 45888 (July 30, 2004)).

5. This policy informs our clients, our staff, and others how we process personal information. We follow the policy and practices described within this privacy policy.

6. Project Hospitality, Inc. may amend our policy or practices at any time. Amendments may affect Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information that we obtained before the effective date of the amendment.

7. Project Hospitality, Inc. provides a written copy of this privacy policy to any individual client who requests receipt of such information.

8. A copy of this policy is available on our website at www.projecthospitality.org

EXPLANATION OF DISCLOSURES

1. Project Hospitality, Inc. collects Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information only when appropriate to provide services or for another specific purpose of our organization or when required by law. Project Hospitality, Inc. may collect information for the following purposes:
   a. To provide individual case management;
   b. To produce aggregate-level reports regarding use of services;
   c. To track individual project-level outcomes;
   d. To identify unfilled service needs and plan for the provision of new services;
   e. To conduct research for consulting and/or educational purposes; and
   f. To accomplish any and all other purposes deemed appropriate by the CCoC.
2. Project Hospitality, Inc. only uses lawful and fair means to collect Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information.

3. Project Hospitality, Inc. normally collects Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information with the knowledge or consent of our clients.

a. If you seek our assistance and provide us with Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information, we assume that you consent to the collection of information described in this policy.

4. Project Hospitality, Inc. shares this data with the NYC Department of Homeless Services, Planning, Development & Grants unit: the agency appointed by the CCoC to manage all Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information we record about our clients. This agency is required to maintain the confidentiality of the data and has a privacy policy that is available to the public at the following website:

5. Project Hospitality, Inc. posts a sign at HMIS intake desks and locations explaining the reasons why we ask for Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information. The sign states the following:

a. “Project Hospitality, Inc. collects personal information about homeless individuals in a computer system called a Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) for reasons that are discussed in our privacy policy. We may be required to collect some personal information by law or by organizations that give us money to operate this program. Other personal information that we collect is important to run our programs, to improve services for homeless individuals, and to better understand the needs of this population. We only collect information that we consider to be appropriate. If you have any questions or would like to see our privacy policy, our staff will provide you with a copy.”

DISCLOSING PERSONALLY/PROTECTED IDENTIFIABLE INFORMATION

1. Project Hospitality, Inc. uses and/or discloses Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information for activities described within this section of the policy. Project Hospitality, Inc. may or may not make any of these uses and/or disclosures of your Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information. It is assumed that you consent to the use and/or disclosure of your Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information for the purposes described below and for other uses and/or disclosures that we determine to be compatible with these uses and/or disclosures:

a. To provide or coordinate services to individuals;
b. For functions related to payment or reimbursement for services;
c. To carry out administrative functions such as legal, audits, personnel, oversight and management functions;
d. To create de-identified (anonymous) information;
When required by law to the extent that use and/or disclosure complies with and is limited to the requirements of the law;

To avert a serious threat to health or safety if:

i. We believe that the use and/or disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of an individual or the public; and

ii. The use and/or disclosure are made to a person reasonably able to prevent or lessen the threat, including the target of the threat.

To report an individual Project Hospitality, Inc. reasonably believes to be a victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence to a governmental authority (including a social service or protective services agency) authorized by law to receive reports of abuse, neglect or domestic violence in any of the following three circumstances:

i. Where the disclosure is required by law and the disclosure complies with and is limited to the requirements of the law;

ii. If the individual agrees to the disclosure; or

iii. To the extent that the disclosure is expressly authorized by statute or regulation and either of the following are applicable:

   - Project Hospitality, Inc. believes the disclosure is necessary to prevent serious harm to the individual or other potential victims; or
   - If the individual is unable to agree because of incapacity, a law enforcement or other public official authorized to receive the report represents that the Personally Identifiable Information/ Protected Identifying Information for which disclosure is sought is not intended to be used against the individual and that an immediate enforcement activity that depends upon the disclosure would be materially and adversely affected by waiting until the individual is able to agree to the disclosure;

iv. When Project Hospitality, Inc. makes a permitted disclosure about a victim of abuse neglect or domestic violence, our staff will promptly inform the individual who is the victim that a disclosure has been or will be made, except if:

   - Project Hospitality, Inc., in the exercise of professional judgment, believe informing the individual would place the individual at risk of serious harm; or
   - Project Hospitality, Inc. would be informing a personal representative (such as a family member or friend), and we reasonably believe the personal representative is responsible for the abuse, neglect or other injury, and that informing the personal representative would not be in the best interests of the individual as we determine in the exercise of our professional judgment.

To a law enforcement official for a law enforcement purpose (if consistent with applicable law and standards of ethical conduct) under any of these circumstances:
i. In response to a lawful court order, court-ordered warrant, subpoena or summons issued by a judicial officer, or a grand jury subpoena;
ii. If the law enforcement official makes a written request for Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information that:

- Is signed by a supervisory official of the law enforcement agency seeking the Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information;
- States that the information is relevant and material to a legitimate law enforcement investigation;
- Identifies the Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information sought;
- Is specific and limited in scope to the extent reasonably practicable in light of the purpose for which the information is sought; and
- States that de-identified information could not be used to accomplish the purpose of the disclosure.

iii. If Project Hospitality, Inc. believes in good faith that the Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information constitutes evidence of criminal conduct that occurred on our premises;
iv. In response to an oral request for the purpose of identifying or locating a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person and the Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information disclosed consists only of name, address, date of birth, place of birth, social security number and distinguishing physical characteristics; or if:

- The official is an authorized federal official seeking Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information for the provision of protective services to the President or other persons authorized by 18 U.S.C. 3056, or to foreign heads of state or other persons authorized by 22 U.S.C. 2709(a)(3), or for the conduct of investigations authorized by 18 U.S.C. 871 and 879 (threats against the President and others); and
- The information requested is specific and limited in scope to the extent reasonably practicable in light of the purpose for which the information is sought.

i. To comply with government reporting obligations for HMIS and for oversight of compliance with HMIS requirements.

j. To third parties for the following purposes:
   i. To permit other systems of care to conduct data matches (i.e., to determine if you are also utilizing services from such other systems of care); and
   ii. To permit third party research firms and/or evaluators to perform research and evaluation services in connection with the programs administered by the CCoC and the other agencies;

- Provided that before Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information is disclosed under this subsection, the third party that will receive such Personally Identifiable
Information/Protected Identifying Information and use it as permitted above must first execute a Data Use & Disclosure Agreement requiring such third party to comply with all applicable laws and regulations, including the privacy standards and disclosure provisions contained in the Department of Housing and Urban Development Homeless Management Information Systems; Data and Technical Standards Final Notice (see 69 Federal Register 45888 (July 30, 2004)), which such standards and provisions are reflected herein.

Before Project Hospitality, Inc. makes any use and/or disclosure of your Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information that is not described here, we seek your consent first.

INSPECTING AND CORRECTING PERSONALLY/PROTECTED IDENTIFIABLE INFORMATION

1. You may inspect and have a copy of your Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information that we maintain. Project Hospitality, Inc. will offer to explain any information that you may not understand.

2. Project Hospitality, Inc. will consider a request from you for correction of inaccurate or incomplete Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information that we maintain about you. If we agree that the information is inaccurate or incomplete, we may delete it or we may choose to mark it as inaccurate or incomplete and to supplement it with additional information.

3. Project Hospitality, Inc. may deny your request for inspection or copying of Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information if:
   a. The information was compiled in reasonable anticipation of litigation or comparable proceedings;
   b. The information is about another individual (other than a health care provider or homeless provider);
   c. The information was obtained under a promise of confidentiality (other than a promise from a health care provider or homeless provider) and if the disclosure would reveal the source of the information; or
   d. Disclosure of the information would be reasonably likely to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual.

4. If we deny a request for access or correction, we will explain the reason for such denial. We will also include, as part of the Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information that we maintain, documentation of the request and the reason for the denial.

5. We may reject repeated or harassing requests for access to or correction of Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information.
DATA RETENTION

1. Project Hospitality, Inc. collects only Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information that is relevant to the purposes for which we plan to use it. To the extent necessary for those purposes, we seek to maintain only Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information that is accurate, complete and timely.

2. Project Hospitality, Inc. will dispose of Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information not in current use seven years after the information was created or last changed. As an alternative to disposal, we may choose to remove identifiers from the Personally Identifiable Information/Protected Identifying Information.

3. Project Hospitality, Inc. may keep information for a longer period if required to do so by an applicable statute, regulation, contract or other requirement.

COMPLAINTS AND ACCOUNTABILITY

1. We accept and consider questions or complaints about our privacy and security policies and practices. You may submit questions or complaints to our Administrative Office located at 100 Park Avenue, Staten Island, NY 10302. The Director of Human Resources will review such complaint and get back to the client regarding resolution after having conferred with the Program Director and/or Area Director about the matter. Questions or complaints made to our Administrative Office by other service providers on the client's behalf will be processed in the manner described above.

2. All members of Project Hospitality, Inc. staff (including employees, volunteers, affiliates, contractors and associates) are required to comply with this privacy policy. Each staff member must receive and acknowledge receipt of a copy of this privacy policy.

3. In the event that your question or complaint is not sufficiently addressed through this organization, you may take your concerns to the Grievance Committee of the CCoC. Individuals will submit grievances in writing to the co-chairs. The co-chairs will pass the grievance to the Grievance Committee, which will review it and make a recommendation back to the co-chairs. The co-chairs will make the final decision about the outcome and notify you. More information about this Committee can be found at www.NYCHomeless.com
